Message from the Pastor

FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY: The word Epiphany means “manifestation, revelation, showing.” As with most feasts in the Catholic Church there is an extended period of celebration. Christmas is such an all-encompassing event that one day is not enough to celebrate everything it includes, manifests, or reveals to us. We have celebrated Christmas with the birth of Jesus, last week we celebrated the Holy Family, this week we celebrate Epiphany, and next week the Baptism of Jesus. At some point in our history, we also celebrated the Wedding feast at Cana. All of these feasts are different parts of the feast of Christmas.

The feast of the Epiphany focuses in the Roman (Latin) Church on the visitation of the Wise men (magi) to the child Jesus and his parents. This feast focuses on the fact that Jesus was not just the Messiah for the Jewish people, but that his ministry would be to all people. This feast emphasizes the universal nature of Jesus’ ministry and the ministry then of the Church.

THANK YOU: Certainly a note of thanks is needed to all those who made our Christmas celebrations such a special time. Thanks to our parish staff, choir and music ministers, deacons, servers, lectors, ushers, eucharistic ministers, and all those who helped to decorate the church. There are always behind the scenes people who make these celebrations happen and we need to recognize and acknowledge their generosity and hard work. Thank You so much!!!

2026 CALENDARS: The 2026 Calendars are available at the entrances/exits this weekend. We are grateful to our local funeral homes for sponsoring these calendars.

UN - DECORATING FROM CHRISTMAS AT BOTH CHURCHES: We will be taking down the decorations from Christmas on the following dates: All are welcome to help!

- St. Teresa—Sunday, January 11 at Noon
- St. Thomas—Monday, January 12 at 9:00am

BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS: From time to time, I make recommendations of good books on Catholic Spirituality. One author that I recommend for everything he has written is Fr. Ronald Rolheiser. The three books that he has written on the spiritual life are excellent and easy to read. These three are part of a trilogy on the spiritual life.

1. The Holy Longing: The Search for a Christian Spirituality
2. Sacred Fire: A Vision for a Deeper Human and Christian Maturity
3. Insane for the Light: A Spirituality for our Wisdom Years.

The first book is a general overview of Spirituality. The second is a spirituality for the second half of life. The third is a spirituality for the last part of life.

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Family Perspective

Today's gospel tells us that "all Jerusalem" was upset because "King Herod was deeply troubled." Similarly, in families, one person's negative attitude can ripple through and affect everyone. If you desire a peaceful and joyful home, it must begin with you. Embrace peace and joy, and let it spread to those around you.

"Question of the Week" - Solemnity of the Epiphany

Question for Children: In your life, who helps you to see Jesus in other people such as a classmate or a friend?

Question for Youth: Life can sometimes be rough: losing your home, moving, feeling fear or danger. How do you experience God being and staying with you in such times?

Question for Adults: How this past week did you demonstrate God's love at home and at work?

The Stars We Follow

Everyone follows a star.

It is human nature to seek. If we are rich, we want to be richer. If we are smart, we want to be smarter. If we are powerful, we want to be more powerful.

We cannot stay in one place, so to speak — to say, “I am what I am, I have what I have, and it is enough.” Even the very act of maintaining a status quo, be it health or wealth or spiritual goodness, requires action. It requires effort. It requires movement. This is human nature. There is nothing wrong with it. When we stop seeking, we die.

But what are we looking for? Where are we going?

I often wonder if the Magi knew what they were seeking — really, truly knew. They were seeking “the newborn king of the Jews,” yes, but did they understand who he was? What he was? I don’t see how they could have. They were wise men, but they were not prophets. They simply knew this was an endeavor they had to undertake. They knew it in their souls.

There really is very little that we know for certain about the Magi. We don’t know how many of them there were. We don’t know their religion. We don’t know where they came from. All we know for certain is that they listened to a voice they heard deep within themselves. And, heeding that voice, they went forth.

And what did they find? They found what we all seek, even if, foolishly, we seek it in riches or power.

They found the face of the Child.

So tell me this. Of all the stars you could follow, which one does the voice — that one deep within you — tell you to chase?

Point to it. And go forth.

Epiphany Home Blessing

The Epiphany household blessing is an ancient practice in the Church. This tradition is a beautiful way to observe the coming of the magi while invoking God’s blessing on your home and all who enter it. All that is needed is chalk and a prayerful heart!

There are a few different formulas for blessings, but the essence of the ritual is always the same: a priest or the head of the household calls down God’s blessing on the house and everyone who comes into it, and an inscription is made above the door in chalk. The inscription reads: the first two digits of the year (20) + C + M + B + the last two digits of the year (26). The initials C, M and B represent the names of the magi — Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar — and also signify the Latin phrase Christus mansionem benedicat which is “May Christ bless the house.”

Remember the Parish in Your Will

To put it very simply: plan for your death by making a Will, plan for your family in the Will, remember the Church in your will. Our parish is still ministering because thoughtful people over the years have left us generous amounts of money in their Wills. A generous amount is whatever God moves someone to give, according to their means, to further the parish mission. Please include the parish in your estate plans. And remember: No gift is too small and no gift is too large!
